

NZ WOMEN IN MEDICINE CONFERENCE 2024

Ko te tumanako me haere tahi tatou
Hope moves us forward together

Karen Danenhauer

Karen Danenhauer originally hails from the US, and trained in Emergency Medicine in Salt Lake City, Utah. She moved to New Zealand with her family 8 years ago, and has practiced in Taranaki ever since. She recently completed a sabbatical investigating efforts in sustainability in healthcare around the world, and is passionate about motivating health care professionals to take climate action. In her spare time, Karen enjoys playing tennis and pickleball, gardening and tramping.
