

NZ WOMEN IN MEDICINE CONFERENCE 2024

Ko te tumanako me haere tahi tatou
Hope moves us forward together

Prof. Robin Gauld

Ph.D., DCom

Co-Director, Centre for Health Systems and Technology

Professor, Dunedin School of Medicine and Otago Business School

University of Otago, Dunedin, New Zealand

Harkness Senior Fellow, Commonwealth Fund of New York

Email: robin.gauld@otago.ac.nz

ROBIN GAULD was Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Commerce) and Dean, Otago Business School, from 2016–23. Under his leadership, Otago Business School became #1 in New Zealand for research, developed innovative new degrees, and increased engagement with industry. Previously, he was Head of the Department of Preventive and Social Medicine at the Otago Medical School, where he was based for 20 years following a PhD in public administration from the University of Hong Kong and an academic appointment in public policy at City University of Hong Kong. In 2018, he received a Doctor of Commerce (DCom) from Victoria University of Wellington for research on health care governance.

Robin is Co-Director, Centre for Health Systems and Technology which spans the Business School and Health Sciences at Otago. He was 2014 NZ-UK Link Foundation Visiting Professor, University of London; a Commonwealth Fund Harkness Fellow in 2008–09 at Boston and Harvard universities; Senior Fellow at the Boston University Health Policy Institute from 2009–13; and from 2013–2017, was founding Independent Chair of Alliance South which brought together clinical leaders and managers to

NZ WOMEN IN MEDICINE
CONFERENCE 2024

Ko te tumanako me haere tahi tatou
Hope moves us forward together

15–18 May 2024
Tākina Convention Centre
Te Whanganui-a-Tara Wellington

NZ WOMEN IN MEDICINE CONFERENCE 2024

Ko te tumanako me haere tahi tatou
Hope moves us forward together

focus on 'whole of system' approaches to care design in New Zealand's Southern region. He is on the Advisory Board of the New South Wales Agency for Clinical Innovation, and the NZ Telehealth Forum. From 2020–22, he was President of the 150-member Association of Asia–Pacific Business Schools, and in 2022 was elected as a Director of Business South. For 2024, he is a Visiting Professor at Universiti Putra Malaysia School of Business and Economics.

Robin has authored 190+ peer-reviewed journal articles, 40+ book chapters and several books including The New Health Policy (Open University Press, 2009) which was awarded First Prize in category at the 2010 British Medical Association Medical Book Awards, and Dangerous Enthusiasms: E-Government, Computer Failure and Information System Development (2006; co-authored) which has been widely-used globally including in key reading lists at Harvard Kennedy School of Government. His most recent book is the coedited Health Systems in Developing Counties in Asia (Routledge, 2017). He sits on leading journal boards including Health Policy, Government Information Quarterly, Health Expectations, Journal of Health Organization and Management, and International Journal of Information Management.

NZ WOMEN IN MEDICINE
CONFERENCE 2024

Ko te tumanako me haere tahi tatou
Hope moves us forward together

15–18 May 2024
Tākina Convention Centre
Te Whanganui-a-Tara Wellington

