

NZ WOMEN IN MEDICINE CONFERENCE 2024

Ko te tumanako me haere tahi tatou
Hope moves us forward together

Sir Peter Gluckman

Sir Peter Gluckman ONZ KNZM MBChB DSc FRSNZ FTWAS FMedSci FRS FISC is president of the International Science Council (ISC) (2021–2024). He was foundation chair of the International Network of Government Science Advice (INGSA) (2014–2021). Sir Peter originally trained as a paediatrician and biomedical scientist and holds a Distinguished University Professorship in the University of Auckland where he heads Koi Tū: the Centre for Informed Futures which focuses on the future of society, human flourishing living with change and informing policy. From 2009–2018 he was first Chief Science Advisor to the Prime Minister of New Zealand. He was made a Knight of the New Zealand Order of Merit in 2009, made a member of the Order of New Zealand (ONZ, 2015, the highest civilian honour in NZ limited to 20 living New Zealanders) and received the Rutherford Medal (New Zealand's highest scientific award) in 2001. He holds honorary chairs at the University College London, University of Southampton, and National University of Singapore. He has published over 800 scientific papers in human and experimental sciences related to human development, neuroscience, metabolism, and evolutionary biology. He chairs the reviews on the future of the NZ science and innovation systems and the University sector for the NZ government.

NZ WOMEN IN MEDICINE CONFERENCE 2024

Ko te tumanako me haere tahi tatou
Hope moves us forward together

15–18 May 2024
Tākina Convention Centre
Te Whanganui-a-Tara Wellington

