Alison McKenzie

Alison is proud to be part of the Specialist Medical Team at Financial Independence. She has worked with medical professionals in the UK and New Zealand throughout her career. She hails from Scotland and was previously a Senior Adviser with MAS for many years. She tells the Team constantly that joining the Financial Independence Medical Specialist Team is the best move she has made! Not only does it allow her to continue to have the privilege of working with medical professionals throughout New Zealand every day, more importantly, she can look after her clients more comprehensively as Financial Independence are a fully independent brokerage firm.

Alison is passionate about providing advice-rich tailored solutions to her clients by making sure they have the most suitable cover in place. Clients can then take comfort knowing they can get on their other priorities of a growing family, career/ business and wealth. Good financial decisions and good planning feel GREAT!
